

GLOBAL ZERO NOW

Call for design: Trendsetters for a Nuclear free future

- What? Create a postcard design that contains the slogan 'Global Zero Now!' in the front.
- Who? Everyone around the globe under the age of 28
- How? It's up to you. The design can be created through photography, drawing, paints, collage, using graphic design programs on the computer.
- When? Submissions by January 20, 2010
- Awarding? On January 25, 2010 the winner will be announced on globalzeronow.bang-europe.org and informed via email. Besides of getting the honor that the postcard will be send around the world, the winner will receive the BANg DVD 'Genie in a bottle – Unleashed' and a little surprise.
- Why? Nuclear Weapons are no longer sexy for the media. Be a trendsetter and bring the topic back into publicity! The postcard will be sent to Foreign Ministries all over the world and be spread in public.

Send your Submissions to postcard@bang-europe.org. It should consist of:

- your digital postcard design in PDF or JPG
- a short statement what and why you contributed
- your name, email, postal address and date of birth
- a digital photo of yourself if possible (for publicity reasons)

Now free your creativity, kiss the muse, take out your painting equipment, design your fancy way for Global Zero Now and inspire the world!

Background information & Submissions: globalzeronow.bang-europe.org

Any questions left? Contact us! contact@bang-europe.org

The postcard competition is organized by an alliance of organizations: Friedenswerkstatt Mutlangen, Ban All Nukes generation, Nuclear Weapons Inheritance Project and others.

All submitted designs should be the submitter's own work. We reserve the right to make amendments to the winning entries in accordance with our requirements. The designer will not hold copyright for the design (unless negotiated otherwise). We will not accept submissions whose designs promote violence, have pornographic content, are racist or discriminatory.